There are 15 children enrolled at this time. They will have children going to school starting the 23rd of August. For most of the summer they have only been averaging 1 to 3 children a day. They will not have any more children coming today. Things are going good, they are still just using the main level of the home. School will start in Glenrock on the 23 of this month. They are getting to go outside and play during the days. Have a great rest of the summer! Please call me with any questions.
