Comments/TA Provided:

8 children present with 3 staff in main classroom. Children were involved with centers. Children were transitioned to circle time and then centers again. Staff is skilled at helping children with resistant behaviors, modeling positive choices and encouraging the children to participate in the activity. Staff accounts for the children's needs and paces the activities to keep them engaged. Staff is very positive with their instruction and encourages children to work hard and try. Keep up the great work ladies!
